Day Nine Teams Depart

8. TEAM STANDINGS: Based on tournament win-loss record or tie breaker procedures.

9. AWARDS:

- a. Individual: Each member of the winning and runner-up teams (to include the team trainer and OIC) receive individual awards.
- b. Team: No team trophy is presented.

c. All-Tournament: An “All-Tournament” team is selected of the best five players (by position) of the tournament. This team is announced prior to the announcement of the 12 players selected to advance to higher-level competition. The Host Project Officer will select and purchase a special “All-Tournament” memento to present to each member of the “All-Tournament” team.

10. TEAM COMPOSITION - ARMED FORCES CHAMPIONSHIP:

Roster not to exceed 16 individuals:

12 Players

1 Coach

1 Asst Coach

1 Certified Athletic Trainer

1 OIC

11. SELECTION PROCESS - HIGHER LEVEL AND ALL-TOURNAMENT: Service Representatives and a designated team representative at the site of the Armed Forces Championship are responsible for the selection of the All Tournament team and the Armed Forces team for higher-level competition. Selection meeting attendance is limited to two people per Service. The following guidelines are used in the selection process:

a. The initial selection for the All-Tournament Team and the Armed Forces Team will be conducted as a paper ballot, submitted simultaneously by each Service Representative to the host project officer at the beginning of the selection meeting. Submitted ballots are final. Ties will be discussed by the selection panel to finalize the selections.

b. Most competent athletes, regardless of Service affiliation, will be selected.

c. Service representatives reserve the right to not select top quality candidates based on behavior, grooming standards, or availability.

Coach Selection Policy: The Head Coach for the Armed Forces Team will be the winning Head Coach of the Armed Forces Championship. The individual will select his-her Assistant Coach from the pool of coaches that participated in the championship (subject to review by the Service Representatives at the championship). If the winning Head Coach is not available, then the second place team Head Coach will be the Head Coach of the Armed Forces team. This individual will also select his-her Assist Coach from the pool of coaches who participated in the championship (subject to review by the Service Representatives at the Championship). If neither the winning nor second place Head Coaches are not available to advance to higher level competition, the AFSWG will vote to select a Head Coach from the remaining pool of available coaches who participated in the championship. Priority will be given to Head Coaches. If replacement coaches cannot be identified within 24 hours preceding the announcement of the team delegation, then the Armed Forces team will not advance to higher level competition.
